11 v.
12 CLEVELAND BROOKS,
13
14 Defendant.

Case No. 2:19-cr-0071-RFB-BNW

ORDER

15 Before the Court is Mr. Brooks' Emergency Motion to Permit Transportation [ECF No.
16 82]. Having reviewed the Motion and the government not opposing the Motion so long as there is 17 a law enforcement escort, the Court finds there is good cause and sufficient reason to GRANT the 18 Motion.

19 Accordingly,

20 IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that the United States Marshals Service or agents or 21 individuals acting under their supervision or authority SHALL transport Mr. Brooks to Sunrise
22 Hospital as soon as feasible TODAY, February 7, 2020, to be able to visit with his wife who is a 23 patient at the hospital and to speak with her doctors.

24 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Mr. Brooks shall have a law enforcement escort during
25 his entire visit to the hospital. This escort shall be a deputy of the United States Marshals Service
26 or an individual(s) operating under the supervision or direction of the United States Marshals
27 Service.

28 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Mr. Brooks shall be returned to the detention facility
TODAY, February 7, 2020, but his visit with his wife shall be as long as feasible at the discretion

1 of the United States Marshals Service. However, in no event shall the visit be less than four hours
2 from the time of Mr. Brooks' arrival at the hospital until the time of his departure from the hospital.
